ESG, Amid Continued Growth, Names Stephen Danizio as Director of Business Development

Senior Sales Leader to Maintain Company Growth Strategy within Colorado and Beyond

DENVER, CO – Execution Specialists Group (ESG), a strategy execution-focused consultancy, today announced that veteran sales professional Stephen Danizio has been promoted to the role of Director of Business Development. Since joining ESG as Business Development Executive in June 2017, Danizio has engaged with dozens of clients and prospects, drawing upon more than 30 years of direct sales and leadership success. In his expanded role, Danizio will be responsible for advancing ESG's growth strategy both in Colorado and throughout the country.

Having worked extensively with executive leadership teams in the legal, financial and private equity communities, Danizio delivers an ideal mix of sales execution and corporate transformation experience within ESG's team of strategists. He has held senior sales leadership positions with Corporate Express and Union Office, and has spent the majority of his career in the fast-paced environment of mergers, acquisitions, integrations, start-ups and technology conversions.

"As ESG celebrates ten years of continuous growth and client engagement, we are delighted to promote Stephen Danizio to this new role and look forward to much continued success in the months and years to come," said Mark Newhall, founder and CEO, ESG. "Clearly there's a wealth of experience that Stephen brings to ESG's stable of experts, but he also carries an infectious energy and dynamic style to work everyday that is readily apparent to our employees, clients and prospects."

"I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to work with the highly-skilled and highly-credentialed group of professionals that make up ESG," said Danizio. "These are remarkable times for businesses of all sizes and markets, with daily concerns about regulations, integrations and strategic processes. Within this complex environment, ESG's clients find considerable value in the firm's advice, as well as its ability to create and execute realistic programs that meet innovative objectives. It has been, and will continue to be, my privilege to introduce ESG to organizations that need a strong and capable partner."
